

I vehemently oppose you restricting XM radio from providing me the traffic and weather information I so desperately need for my daily commute. My travel pattern to and from work, from the high desert in Southern California to the Inland Empire is crucial for me and the local AM/FM stations are not available to me through the Cajon Pass. The only resource I have is XM radio. Leave it alone!